

El Cid Announces Its Newest Residential Development -- Costa de Andalucía

El Cid Real Estate, a premier real estate company in Mazatlán, Mexico, recently announced the launch of Costa de Andalucía, its newest development in El Cid Real Estate's residential community.

With an $8 million investment, El Cid has positioned Andalucía in a highly privileged location within the resort, one of the first master planned resorts in Mexico, conveniently located in the heart of Mazatlán's Golden Zone. Comprised of 54,116 sq. meters (582,500 sq. feet), of which 37,164 sq. meters (400,030 sq. feet) is devoted to retail, this elegant residential community boasts 60 single family lots with a choice of scenic marina or golf course views, 24-hour gated, electronic access and underground utilities. Lot prices in Costa de Andalucía begin at $100,000 USD. Jorge Gómez, Director of Sales stated, "As our residential development continues to grow, it provides homeowners with a fabulous option of where to live comfortably, and an incredible location in which to invest."

The El Cid Real Estate division of El Cid Resorts offers the homes, condominiums and custom lots around which you can build your resort lifestyle. El Cid is far more than an excellent Mazatlán real estate opportunity. It's an investment in your soul – and the dividends of resort-style living are priceless! Whether you're considering a well-deserved vacation home or a permanent change of pace, El Cid's Real Estate team has 30 years of experience in Mazatlan property ownership to support your search.
